If Seller should have cause to believe that he will be unable to meet the agreed delivery date, he shall immediately notify Buyer in writing stating the reason for the delay, the effect on the agreed delivery date and furthermore include a proposal on how the delay can be minimised. Seller shall bear own costs incurred to minimise the delay unless the delay is caused by Buyer.

Seller is liable for losses suffered by Buyer which could have been avoided if Seller had given notice of the delay in due time.

4.2 Delivery

Unless otherwise agreed, delivery shall be deemed to have taken place when the Deliverables have been handed over to Buyer and agreed installation work and tests have been passed and completed.

5 VARIATIONS / CANCELLATION

The provisions of Article 5.1 - 5.6 shall only apply to the extent the Deliverables are manufactured especially for Buyer and for work mentioned in Article 3.

General Conditions for Purchase of material

7 BREACH OF CONTRACT

7.1 Delay

Delay exists when Seller fails to comply with the time limits stated in the Contract, unless the delay is caused by Buyer.

If the Deliverables have such defects that they are not suitable for their intended purpose, Buyer may elect to treat this as delay.

Seller is liable for delay pursuant to Article 7.2.

7.2 Effects of delay

Unless otherwise agreed, liquidated damages shall accrue at a rate of 0.3 % of the total contract price per day by which the agreed delivery date is delayed. Liquidated damages shall, however, not exceed 15 % of the total contract price.

If the delay is caused by gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of Seller or someone for whom he is responsible, Buyer may, instead of the liquidated damages claim compensation for the losses suffered due to the delay.

Buyer may terminate the Contract with immediate effect upon any delay. If the Deliverables are manufactured especially for Buyer, and Seller therefore is unable to dispose of the Deliverables without incurring considerable losses, Buyer may only terminate the Contract if the maximum of liquidated damages have accrued or the delay constitutes a substantial breach of Contract.

7.3 Defects

Seller is liable for any defect in the Deliverables pursuant to Article 7.4.

Neither Buyer's inspection pursuant to Article 2.4 nor the fact that Seller has sent drawings, goods or samples for Buyer's inspection limits Seller's responsibility for ensuring that the Deliverables are in compliance with the contractual requirements.

Buyer shall inspect the Deliverables within a reasonable time after delivery.

Buyer is under no obligation to inspect the Deliverables prior to arrival at its permanent destination. If Seller shall carry out installation work, the obligation to perform inspection does not arise until the Deliverables have been accepted pursuant to Article 3.2.

Buyer's obligation to perform inspection of the Deliverables applies correspondingly where Seller has performed rectification work.

Buyer shall issue a written notice of defect within reasonable time following discovery of any defect, and in no event later than 24 months after delivery. The same time limit applies in respect of any replaced or repaired parts, calculated from the time the replacement or repair took place. The time limit for making a notice of defect does not commence as long as rectification work or other activities necessary to comply with the contractual requirements are performed.

7.4 Liability for defects

When Buyer notifies Seller of a defect, Seller shall commence rectification of the defect without delay. The rectification work shall be postponed upon Buyer's request provided that Buyer has a justified reason for requiring such postponement. Rectification work shall be performed for Seller's account.

If Seller fails to remedy the defect within reasonable time, Buyer is entitled to remedy the defect himself or employ a third party to do so for Seller's risk and account, or to reduce the contract price accordingly. The same shall apply if awaiting Seller's remedy will cause substantial inconvenience to Buyer. In such event, Seller shall be notified in writing prior to initiating of the rectification work.

Buyer is entitled to claim compensation for losses suffered due to defects. Such compensation is limited to cover direct losses unless Seller or someone Seller is responsible for has acted with gross negligence or wilful misconduct

Buyer may terminate the Contract if a defect constitutes a substantial breach of Contract. In such event, Buyer is entitled to reject Seller's offer to remedy the defect and/or substitute the Deliverables.

7.5 Indemnification

Seller shall indemnify Buyer if the Deliverables constitute an infringement of third party patent rights or other intellectual property rights, except when this is necessary due to Buyer's specifications and Seller did not know or ought to have known that such an infringement would occur.

8 FORCE MAJEURE

8.1 Force majeure means an occurrence beyond the control of the party affected, provided that such party could not reasonably have foreseen such occurrence at the time of entering into the Contract and could not reasonably have avoided it or overcome its consequences.

8.2 A party shall not be considered in breach of the Contract to the extent it is proven that he was unable to fulfil his contractual obligations due to force majeure. Each party shall cover its own costs resulting from force majeure.

8.3 The party invoking force majeure shall notify the other party thereof without undue delay. Such notice shall also include the cause of the delay and the presumed duration thereof.

8.4 Each party is entitled to cancel the Contract if the force majeure situation continues, or it is obvious that it will continue, for more than 60 days.

9 PROPRIETARY RIGHTS TO DELIVERABLES MANUFACTURED SPECIFICALLY FOR BUYER. CONFIDENTIALITY

9.1 Proprietary rights to Deliverables manufactured specifically for Buyer.

If the Deliverables are manufactured specifically for Buyer, the Deliverables are Buyer's sole property as and when the Deliverables are performed. All reports, drawings, specifications and similar documents, including computer programs, that are prepared in connection with the work constitute part of the Deliverables.

9.2 Confidentiality

All information exchanged or otherwise transferred between the parties shall be treated as confidential and shall not be disclosed to any third parties without the written consent of the other party.

A party may nevertheless make such information available to third parties provided that the information was already known to that party at the time the information was received, or that the information is or becomes part of public domain other than through a fault of either of the parties, or is rightfully received from a third party without an obligation of confidentiality or it is necessary due to applicable laws and regulations.

Information may also be disclosed to third parties to the extent necessary for execution of the Contract or utilization of the Deliverables, provided that the receiver of such information shall be bound by a confidentiality obligation similar to this Article 9.2.

Without Buyer's written consent, Seller shall not issue any press release or otherwise advertise that this Contract has been entered into.

10 ASSIGNMENT OF THE CONTRACT

Buyer is entitled to assign his rights and obligations pursuant to the Contract, fully or partly, to any third party. Seller may not assign his rights and obligations pursuant to the Contract without Buyer's written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

11 APPLICABLE LAW AND LEGAL VENUE

The Contract shall be governed by the law of the Buyer's country.

A party may only bring a dispute in connection with the Contract before the appropriate court of the other party's legal domicile. Seller also agrees to have litigation brought before the courts of the Buyer's judicial district.
